RECAP

CHAPTER FOUR

- Paul thanks the Philippians for their giving but also makes sure they know he's not asking for more by ensuring them he has more than enough.
- From prison, Paul shares he is content in any circumstance because Christ gives him strength.
- God supplies for the needs of those who sacrificially give for the sake of the gospel.
- Paul expresses the trans-local nature of the gospel, which is able to unify all kinds of people in all kinds of places into one family with God as Father.
